NIA FAILS TO RESPOND IN SADHVI PLEA

AGE CORRESPONDENT
 MUMBAI, FEB. 3

The NIA has failed to file their reply to the petition submitted by Sadhvi Pragya Singh Thakur in December 2012, which had challenged the constitutional validity of the setting up of NIA. The Bombay high court had asked the NIA to file their reply on the petition within four weeks.

Singh, in her petition, had challenged the constitutional validity of NIA, which was formed by the Union government to probe all cases pertaining to terrorism. The petition claimed, "The question that has been sought to be answered is regarding the legislative competence of the Parliament to enact such a law. Law and order is the an exclusive subject and the same has been mentioned in the
